

SWORD & BUGLE

NEWSLETTER OF THE MINEHEAD WARGAMES CLUB

Issue Fourteen

I doubt that any wargame can get more original than one which features home-grown rules together with scratchbuilt models.

So, Rory's pre-dreadnought game using his own rules and ships was undeniably that. Whilst the game was primarily a first-outing and testing opportunity for his rules, a great time was had by all participants and it was clear that considerable thought had gone into them with only minor tweaking being necessary to complete them.
